

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio State Engineer

Title: Tau Beta Pi Elects

Issue Date: 1944-03

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 27, no. 4 (March, 1944), 24.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/36056>

TAU BETA PI ELECTS

At one of the longest balloting sessions in the history of Tau Beta Pi, eight seniors and three juniors were elected on February 9, 1944.

These men were pledged February 23, 1944, at a dinner in Oxley Hall Tea Room. Professor Wilson R. Dumble was the dinner speaker.

Informal initiation will be conducted March 14, 1944, and formal initiation will be March 17, 1944, at the faculty club with Dr. Albert F. Prebus speaking on his electron microscope and micro-diffraction camera.

The seniors elected are Edward W. Bailey, Dean E. Breese, Edward F. Harris, Clarence A. Haverly, Alfred Krausz, Edward W. Powell, Eriol J. Weiss, and Robert O. Williams.

Honor juniors are Bill L. Larcamp, Edward Manring, and Kennard Wing.